3° to provide students with the knowledge and expertise required of future leaders in international institutions, national administrations, cultural organisations, or media groups, especially those facilitating exchanges in communication, cultural goods and human resources.

§2. Consortium: The Erasmus Mundus Masters programme Crossways in Cultural Narratives, CWCN, is an integrated Masters Programme designed by 12 Universities with a wide-range leadership in Literature and the Arts: the Université de Perpignan Via Domitia, UPVD, FRANCE; the Università degli studi di Bergamo Bergamo, UniBg, ITALY; the University of St Andrews, USTA, UNITED KINGDOM; the University of Sheffield, SHEFFIELD, UNITED KINGDOM; Adam Mickiewicz University, AMU, POLAND; the Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen, EKUT, GERMANY; the Universidad de Santiago de Compostela, USC, SPAIN; the Universidade Nova de Lisboa, UNL, PORTUGAL; the University of Guelph, CANADA; and the Universidad Nacional de Tres de Febrero, UNTREF, ARGENTINA; the Universidad Iberoamericana de la Ciudad de México, MEXICO, Associate partner; the Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro, UFRJ, BRAZIL;

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union
Each University of the consortium must provide languages classes to the students, corresponding to the languages the student needs for his/her Semester 4 University. If the University does not provide classes in the languages needed, the University must call upon an external provider.

Students may not choose a mobility track comprising both the University of St Andrews and the University of Sheffield;
Students may not spend the same academic year in both Canada (University of Guelph) and the UK (University of St Andrews, University of Sheffield); the Universidad Iberoamericana de la Ciudad de Mexico and Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro cannot be chosen as Home University;
Before embarking on their chosen mobility-tracks, all first-year students will be convened for an induction week in one of the universities of the consortium (organised on a revolving basis by each institution in turn). This week will be planned so as to coincide with the September meeting of the Academic Council, the Crossways graduation ceremony, and the General Assembly of the Crossways Alumni Association.

Students undertake two main types of activity:
1-participating in courses (lectures, workshops and seminars), assessed either by continuous assessment, the preparation of a researched dossier, or examinations at the end of the semester;
2-and writing, under the supervision of members of the consortium’s teaching staff, two dissertations: an intermediary dissertation worth 10 ECTS to be written during Semester 3; and a final-year dissertation of around 20,000 words, worth 30 ECTS, to be written in Semester 4.

Internships and work-related projects (Semester 2 or between Semesters 2/3) will involve a range of possibilities of mutual benefit to the student and employer, which focus on issues of “cultural crossing” (globalisation, cultural identity, intercultural communication, etc.). The internship report is worth 5 ECTS.
